BIO

Mark Goldfeder is a 30-year veteran of the Fire and Emergency Medical Services arena and has been providing career advancement training to Florida's fire service personnel since 2010. He is the President and Co-Founder of Five Bugles Institute, a Professional member of the National Speakers

Association, and provides specialized training, education, and other services such as keynotes and programs on leadership development, mentoring, and implementing change within the organizational culture to public service and corporate clients.

Five Bugles Institute can help your organization to...

- Increase productivity, revenue, and profits
- Decrease costly mistakes, turnover, and industry pitfalls
- Provide proactive program approaches to help reach organizational goals
- Create and implement programs to maximize organizational benefits of hiring military veterans

Mark possesses a master's degree in Organizational Leadership from Norwich University and has been an instructor, curriculum developer, and dedicated and passionate speaker for over 25 years. He possesses multiple National and State of Florida instructor certifications, has received training from the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation, has presented at the local, regional, and national levels, and has been published by Fire Engineering Magazine.

He has a wife and two children, is a retired baseball umpire, and has deployed to multiple disasters and national events as part of the National Disaster Medical System where he has functioned as a Strike Team leader, paramedic, translator, trainer, and safety officer.

Speaking Testimonials

“Great time working with Mark. Instruction was spot-on and his desire to help others is genuine. We had an excellent experience!”

Ted Shistle, Deputy Fire Chief, New Smyrna Beach Fire Department

“I can't say enough how appreciative we are of Mark. He made such an impact on me personally. He is by far the absolute best instructor and mentor I've ever experienced.”

Lindsay, Seminole Fire Rescue

“Mark's class didn't make me feel like I was at school but more like a fun informative class. He made it easy for the information to stick. I personally think anyone that comes out of his class will have a step ahead when they actually hit the field to work. Five Bugles Institute is the REAL DEAL!”
